	 2018 – Together with 6 colleagues, we received KSHS 1, 208, 348 from Daystar University for Environmental Communication Research
	9. I led (in 2016-2018) a team of scholars and researchers from the University of Maryland (USA), Daystar University and the University of Rwanda to conduct a funded research in Rwanda on the impact of TV children's programs on the learning of children aged 6-8years. Research site: Groupe Scholaire St Dominique Gihara in Kamonyi District, Southern Province. Research Grant – USD 23, 160
	10. KUFUA: A Narrative and Ethnographic Study of Clandestine Commercial Sex in the Major Cities of Kenya (co-researched by 3 of us – and funded by Research Department of Daystar University – KSHS one million) – 2014/2016 academic years.
	 11. "The Importance of Interfaith Dialogue in the Workplace for Achieving Organizational Goals: A Kenyan Case Study" (2013/2014 Research Grant from Daystar University) – KSHS 300, 000
COVID-19 Funds	Daystar Foodbank – When COVID hit hard in 2020, we came up with this initiative / campaign to help students (and staff and faculty). We have created funding relationship with University of Maryland – so far received over USD 10, 700. From DU students, staff and faculty, we raised over USD 1000. The fund is managed by DRGS, but the Nairobi Pastor Rachel Ngugi, Athi River Resident chaplain, an MA Communication student are volunteering to facilitate the purchase and distribution of the same.
Academic Awards and other Academic- related Recognition	 * July 2022 – I was the Anglophone Jury on the Re-Insurance Continental Journalism Award – in Lagos, Nigeria * In May 2022, I was awarded by the International Communication Association (ICA) in Paris, France, for my immense service to the Development of ICA in Africa and service to the field of communication as mentor and evangelist for cross-cultural dialogue. * April 2022 I received the Outstanding Contribution to Academics Award by the Daystar University Students' Association (DUSA) leadership. * In June 2018, I received the Academia Award from the Daystar University Alumni Association (DUAA) in recognition of outstanding Daystar University Alumni 2018.
	* On 15 th June 2013 – Out of the 32 peer-reviewed papers presented at the International Conference on Communication, Conflict, and Aggression in Budapest, Hungary, we (I and six MA Communication students) won the 2013

	George Gerbner Excellence Award.
	*My academic scholarship and mentorship efforts have been recognized by the prestigious ICA. Hence in October 2016, I was elected the first African to the position of Board of Directors. I am the first African to hold such a position in the over 60 years old Association}. ICA is headquartered in Washington DC.
	* Additionally, I am a vivid fundraiser who has managed to raise funds for international (academic) conferences and research training workshops in support of graduate students and early career scholars from Africa. These have been held in Kenya (Nairobi at Daystar University, 2016, Uganda (Entebbe, in 2017) and Ghana (Accra, in 2018). Excluding other monies raised from the Conference, I managed to have ICA send over USD 45, 000 for the mentioned conferences / training session.
	*Because of my direct involvement with ICA, a number of graduate students and early career scholars from Africa do access conference registration waivers, partial travel grants and secure affordable accommodation in Europe, Asia or North America during the annual ICA Conference. Between 2015- 2019, almost USD 100, 000 has been spent on the partial travel grant and registration waiver on African delegates. I facilitate this.

(vi) In lieu of the 4 th March 2013 and 8 th August 2017 Kenyan General Elections, I (together with a group of MA Communication students, taking the Crisis Communication Course), made presentations to the Ministry of Information and Communication (ICT) for 2017 elections and IEBC (for 2013 elections). The rationale behind this visit was for us to make an intellectual and practical communication contribution to IEBC and the nation of Kenya towards the 2013 and 2018 General elections.
I have directed, scripted and produced a number of professional videos on Faith, Social, Developmental and educational themes. Through these videos, I have attempted to inform, educated and persuade society to a particular course. Some of the videos are:-
1. Doing the Will of God: The Story of the Servant of God, Maurice Michael Cardinal Otunga (2013)
2. Never Again (2011) is aimed at persuading all people of good will that never again should Kenya walk the path of 2007-2008 post election violence.
3. Two are Better than One: The Phenomenon of Single Parenthood (2011) documents the reality of single parenthood in our contemporary society.
4. The Fishing Rod & Road (2011) is a video that documents the Church's intent of giving the urban slum dwellers a fishing rod and road but not fish
5. A voyage of 40 years (2011) presents the fact that the seed of faith planted in Machakos by the early missionaries more than 40 years ago is alive and active.
6 There is Hope (2010) is a video that helps the public to understand that epilepsy is a medical condition that can be controlled such that a person with epilepsy leads a normal life.
 Facts about the ICC (2010) is a production of CUEA's Faculty of Law – commercial clips – inviting the public to come and be enlightened on The ICC
8. Giving New Life (2010) is a production indicating that an individual can touch and transform the lives of many people by demystifying misconceptions such as those surrounding epilepsy.
9. Moving On Transforming Africa through Leadership (2010) was aimed at helping Strathmore University raise money to realize the construction of her third phase
 Choose Life and You will Live (2010) depicts the stand of the Catholic Church on the Kenyan proposed Constitution.
11. Live From Rome! Vatican City! (2009) was an AD for the local TV stations to alert Kenyans to watch the Triduum celebrations from Rome.
